What would he give for the coffee you serve?

Like a million other women, you can serve coffee that he would give most anything to have—coffee which starts the day "right" for all.

Everyone loves the rich flavor of Arbuckles' Coffee. Of all the coffees in America today, it is by far the most popular!

One woman says: "My husband used to swallow his coffee and hurry off. Now we have Arbuckles' and you'd think it was Sunday the way he lingers over his breakfast."

Until you try Arbuckles' you will never know what a difference good coffee can make in your home.

Today there are whole towns where Arbuckles is practically the only coffee used. In one State, alone, in a year, four pounds of Arbuckles' Coffee was used for every man, woman and child in the State—four times as many pounds of coffee as the population of the State! Arbuckle Bros., New York.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS.

This week the hearts of 58 little children were delighted when at chapel Monday morning, the Superintendent, Prof. Oldfield made the announcement that the large attendance—Punctuality banner was awarded to Miss Pelley's room, the second and third grades; that room having the highest average. The following were the averages for the week:

Miss Pelley	—96.94%
Prof. Faulkner	—96.26%
Prof. Oldfield	—94.40%
Miss Barton	—93.88%
Prof. Mills	—93.25%
Miss Prater	—92.35%
Miss Parker	—86.88%

Considering the bad rainy weather last week the above averages are remarkably good. This makes three different rooms who have gained the banner. Let's see who gets it next Monday morning.

A most interesting chapel exercises was held Wednesday morning. Rev. Ligon came out bringing with him A. L. Haley and Rev. Roud Shaw. All the students were delighted with the excellent talks.

Mr. A. M. Oldfield also visited chapel exercises this week.

The Literary Society of High School Department had an instructive as well as entertaining literary program and debate last Friday.

ROOSEVELT'S COURT SPEECH

I feel that primarily the great count against Mr. Wilson is that by his substitution of words for deeds, and the betrayal of his fine words by his deeds, he has loosened the spring of American patriotism and has dulled the moral sense of our people. Moreover, in addition to the fact that his deeds have made his lofty utterances matters of contemptuous derisions. Some of his word themselves have eaten into the souls of our people with the acid of egredation. A little while ago in one of our large cities a school teacher declined to allow the children in his class to sing patriotic songs. It is small wonder that our people should be in the case when the chief executive sets the kind of example that President Wilson has set. If the President is inspired by the sinking of the Lusitania with the loss of 1,300 lives only to make his remark about being "Too proud to fight," it is not to be wondered at some of his friends should feel reluctance to sing the "Star Spangled Banner."

If the President never ventures to raise his voice in protesting against the treacherous murder of Boyd and Adair, and their Troopers, those who follow him are to be excused for refusing to sing America.

The selection of Mr. Hughes is the only way by which we can now restore the tone of the national conscience and give to our people once more the feeling of the beauty of patriotism. Mr. Wilson has taught us that adroit and graceful elocution may be one of the worst gifts which an evil fate can dower the Chief Executive of the Nation.

Against the man of mere elocution we have put in Mr. Hughes, the man whose intellectual straight-forwardness, whose rugged strength of character and whose courageous sincerity of purpose give us a guarantee that every promise he makes either expressed or implied will be made good by his actions.

Dr. Tye Has

Narrow Escape.

Dr. John G. Tye had a narrow escape from death last Sunday morning between six and seven o'clock when his automobile turned over with him and pinned him to the ground. The machine left the road and landed about seventy feet down an embankment, holding him fast until help could come to him. He got a mule and rode into town and informed Walter T. Cody of the whereabouts of his Ford. Cody after hearing how badly the Ford was battered up took the necessary repairs, and in three hours he had "Miss Ford" back in town and the Doctor was ready for another episode.

NEXT PRESIDENT MAY BE KNOWN BEFORE ELECTION

MAJOR HENRY DRUGGISTS
TAKE STRAW VOTE

Poll of Over 2,500,000
Covers Every State

Voters Come From All Ranks

RESULTS WILL BE ANNOUNCED
BEFORE ELECTION

The results of the November election, and the name of the next President of the United States may be published by the Mountain Advocate before the polls open. This is a fact that is made by the National Association of Retail Druggists whose members, numbering over 8,000, are now taking a straw vote of over 2,500,000 people from all walks of life and covering every State and Territory in the Union. By special arrangement with The Herndon Drug Co., a member of the Retail Association in Barbourville the results of the Straw Vote will be published in this newspaper.

The fact that the members of the Druggists' Association, operate stores in towns and cities, ranging in population from 100 to 6,000,000 and scattered all over the country, and that they serve a public comprising all classes, agricultural, industrial, commercial and professional, gives to this poll a representative character.

This Straw Vote is the largest ever taken and the first of its kind to be conducted by a national commercial organization, but the drug men have perfected a system for receiving and recording the ballots, that is equalled in scope only by that of the national government. From their headquarters in Boston, the United Drug Company—the 8,000,000 members of the Retail Druggists' Association are supplied with the returns. These results are mailed or telegraphed to Boston at the close of business each day. At the Association Headquarters the ballots are tabulated, and the final vote will be placed in the hands of the 8,000 Retail Druggists before Election Day for simultaneous publication in the Retail Stores, and in the leading newspaper of every city and town in the United States. WATCH THIS NEWSPAPER FOR LATER RETURNS.
